IN MEMORIAM

Jerry Whiting

Keith Eiler

We had two dear friends,
Whose names were Jerry and Keith.
But God has called them
And we have placed a wreath
Upon their lonely graves to stay.
We wish they could come back someday.
Their laughter we no longer hear,
And sometimes in silence we shed a tear.
To you, Jerry and Keith, we dedicate our Sword,
Along with the blessings to you from our Lord.

By Clayton Fisher

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

STANDING: George Smith, Doran Immel, Becky Garber.
SITTING: Jack Zinkon, Charles Mullet, Lois Miracle.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The editors of this section wish to thank the faculty for their cooperation in the taking of pictures. They also wish to apologize to all people who were not recognized in this year's yearbook because of a lack of space or a lack of pictures.

One of our natural traits as human beings is being possessive of the good things in life. You, the graduating class of 1973, have a storehouse of accomplishments and memories about which to be possessive. While they may in future years appear tinged with imperfection and lack signs of newly acquired maturity, remember them fondly. They are yours–they are you.

DONALD G. BROWN
Superintendent

Before a group can function it must have a problem to solve. Further, the problem must be one which is recognized as needing solution and whose proper solution will make life more enjoyable for the members. I believe that your days at Garaway have prepared you to solve personal problems, and I hope that you will use your education to attack at least one of the problems of our society.

CHARLES R. SCHROEDER
Principal

Many educational opportunities are available to all Garaway students. A major objective of our school system is to offer students a well-rounded general education and to teach them to accept responsibilities which will help prepare themselves to attain success in their future endeavors.

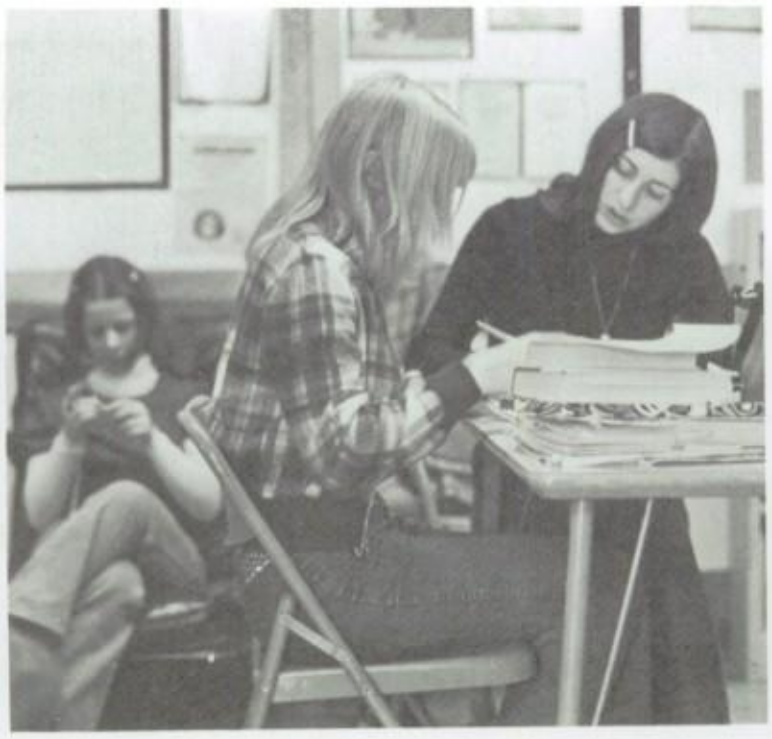
Don't give me any lip!



School wouldn't be bad if we didn't have to study.

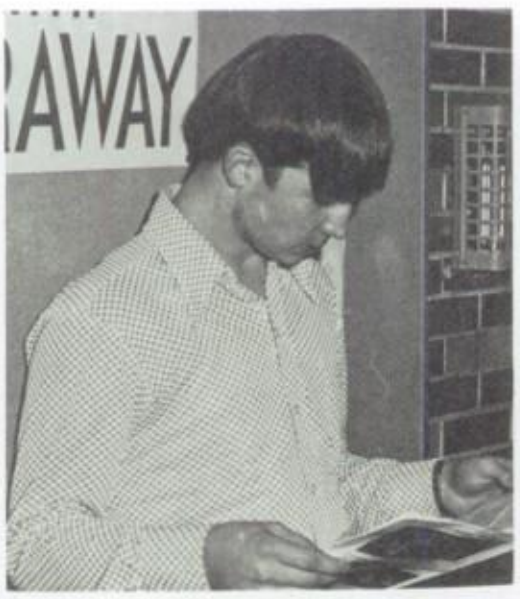
I hope you broke that camera.

This typing's rough on fingernails.

Don't bug me.

Must be looking in a mirror.

Pretty please!!!



Where's the centerfold?

Roy wasn't supposed to tell anybody.

Bend over!

Smile! It's not the end of the world.

She couldn't have!

Interesting.

Sticky fingers?

Mr. Shroeder doesn't know.

He's back where he belongs!

Who spiked the fountains?

Let's check our answers.

This is the Dairy Treat Special!

Daaaa. Which way did they go, Dan?

You've got to be kidding!

These Seniors were the backbone of this year's football team. The Pirates ended the season with a record of 1 - 9. The Pirates played better than their record showed. They were a much improved team and will have great possibilities for the future. Congratulations for a great year of football.

This was the year of the unpredictable. The team ended the regular season with an even 9-9 record, playing the toughest schedule ever played in Pirate basketball history. The tournament season came around and so did the Pirates. They copped the Dover Sectional crown and finally bowed out in the District finals to the previous year's state champions Indian Valley South, 46-43. The highlight of the season was Coach Andreas' One-Hundredth victory with Lakeland being the victim.

Bonnie - Who, me?

Doug F. - I need a barrett.

Jim and Linda - Fighting, again?

Jane H. -What a heavy beat!

Edith - They call me "Edith Ann."

Mr. Leland - This is the life!

P.C. Officers - Pirate Pushers have more fun.

Lori - My group had 75% fewer cavaties.

Help me, guys!

Which room do we dump this in?

Hey, take it easy with my shorts!

Farmers of America step aside!

I'll get you yet!

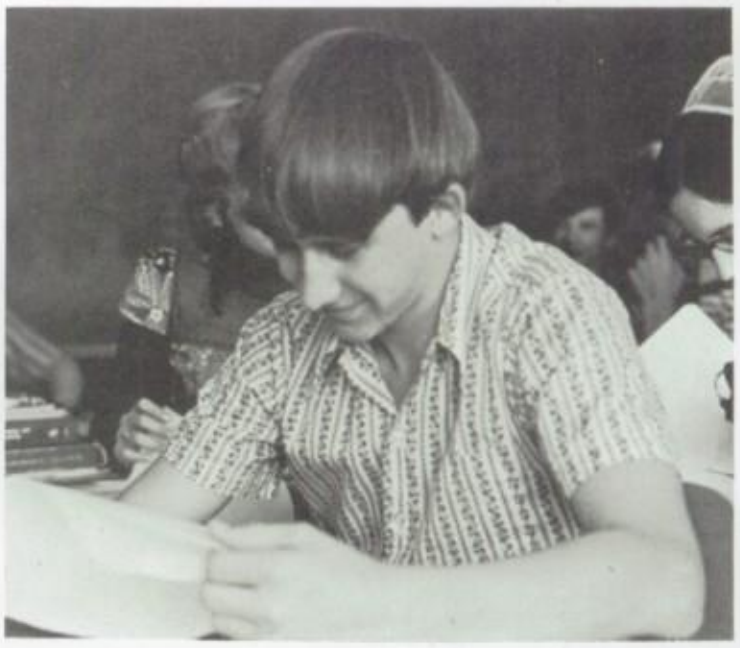
So keep the faith!

"The Thinker"

Da?

These teachers always make us work.

I wonder if this is from Joe.



If he'd only know how I got this good grade.

This math is terrible.

Thought we couldn't win these, didn't you?

How would you like to do this?

Oh, she ripped her blouse again.

You, in the corner, shut up!

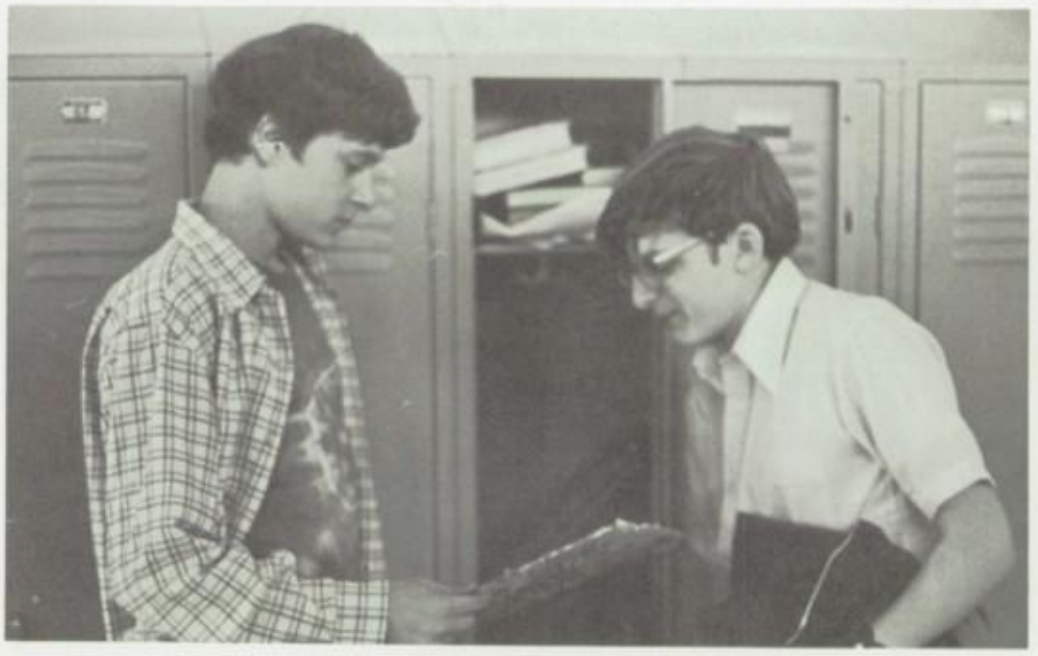
It's got to be perfect.

Aren't you kids supposed to be studying?

Don't tell anyone that you caught me in here.

I hate to get tests back.

If you buy one, I'll buy the other one.



Sharing a locker with you is a real bummer.

The library offers all kinds of excitement.

You learn all kinds of things in health class.

Just call me Sugarlips Griffith.

These magazines would be a lot more exciting if Burt Reynolds would pose for a centerfold.

Ed likes me better in skirts.

Study hard, girls.

Lonely days in the Library.
